

American Antiquarian Society

Manuscript Collections

---

Name of collection:

Dunning, Albert Elijah, Correspondence, 1891-1911

Location:

Misc. mss. boxes "D"

---

Size of collection:

1 folder (32 items)

N.U.C.M.C. number:

RLIN id:

---

Sources of information on collection:

For a biographical sketch of Dunning and a list of other accounts of his life, see the Dictionary of American Biography.

---

Source of collection:

Unknown

---

Collection description:

Albert Elijah Dunning (1844-1923), son of Elijah Starr and Abigail Emily Beach Dunning, was born in Brookfield, Conn. He graduated from Yale in 1867 and from the Andover Theological Seminary in 1870. From 1870 to 1881, he was pastor of the Highland Congregational Church in Boston. He was secretary of the Congregational Sunday School and Publishing Society from 1881 to 1889 and editor of The Congregationalist from 1889 to 1911. He was a member of the International Sunday School Lesson Committee from 1884 to 1901. He was the author of books relating to Sunday school, Congregationalists, and the Bible.

This collection consists of letters to Dunning relating to The Congregationalist. There is also correspondence pertaining to the various religious organizations and benevolent societies with which Dunning was associated.