

American Antiquarian Society

Manuscript Collections

---

Name of collection:

Blue Hill (Me.), Records, 1767-1892

Location:

Folio volumes "B"

---

Size of collection:

1 folio volume (354 p.)

N.U.C.M.C. number:

RLIN id:

---

Sources of information on collection:

---

Source of collection:

Unknown

---

Collection description:

Blue Hill, Hancock County, Maine is located on the west shore of an inlet of the Atlantic Ocean called Blue Hill Bay, opposite Mt. Desert Island, fifteen miles from Bucksport, Me., and about thirty-four miles south-southeast of Bangor, Me. It was settled in 1762 and incorporated in 1789.

This volume of materials pertaining to the community of Blue Hill, Me., contains copies of town meetings from 1767 through 1801, Massachusetts laws pertaining to Blue Hill, copies of petitions to the Massachusetts General Court requesting a grant of land to the petitioners, a list of early settlers of Blue Hill, and vital statistics of early residents of Blue Hill, covering the period 1711 to 1892. There is also material relating to the Candage family of Blue Hill and R.G.F. Candage, the compiler of this volume.

6 September 1974
revised 13 May 1999