

American Antiquarian Society

Manuscript Collections

Name of collection:

Babcock, Charles, Daybook and Account Book, 1829-1830

Location:

Folio volumes "B"

Size of collection:

2 folio volumes (183 p., 114 p.)

N.U.C.M.C. number:

RLIN id:

Sources of information on collection:

Source of collection:

Unknown

Collection description:

Charles Babcock was a proprietor of a general store in Worcester, Mass. He dealt in groceries, dry good, glass, wine, rum, tobacco, wood, brooms, rakes, etc.

These two complementary volumes cover the period 30 May 1829 to 16 June 1830. The first volume, the daybook which includes an index, records daily transactions. The second volume, the account book, is a cumulation of the various transactions of Babcock's customers.

12 June 1973
revised 30 November 1998