Collection description:

This commonplace book is a late eighteenth century collection of quotations from various authors on subjects such as: pride, wit, charity, ambition, etc. Pages are numbered and an alphabetical index is included at the end of the volume. Quotations are also written on the front and back covers. Quotations on the front cover include the dates "1753, or 1752" and 1772. Most of the quotations come from English authors.
