

American Antiquarian Society
Manuscript Collections

---

Name of collection:

Derby (Ship), Account Book, 1810

Location:

Misc. mss. boxes "D"

---

Size of collection:

1 folder (3 items)

N.U.C.M.C. number:

RLIN id:

---

Sources of information on collection:

---

Source of collection:

Unknown

---

Collection description:

The Derby was a ship mastered by James Bennett from Boston, Mass.

This account book records merchandise shipped on the Derby from Boston. The ship carried goods on consignment for George Lyman, James and Thomas H. Perkins, and William Sturgis. Cargo destination is not usually designated, however, one shipment was to the northwest corner of America. The folder also contains a photographic copy of the original account book, as well as a photocopy of a typed transcription.

10 July 1975
revised 1 April 1999