Collection description:

Edward Everett (1794-1865) served as a Congressman from Massachusetts from 1825 to 1835, as the Governor of Massachusetts from 1836 to 1839, as the President of Harvard College from 1846 to 1849, as U.S. Secretary of State from 1852 to 1853, and as a Senator from Massachusetts from 1853 to 1854. In 1860, he was a candidate for Vice-President. His published works include numerous addresses and political commentaries.

This collection of papers includes varied correspondence concerning his Vice-Presidential nomination, materials sent to the American Antiquarian Society, books and pamphlets he had read, etc. Also included are various documents Everett signed as Governor of Massachusetts and as President of Harvard College.
