Size of collection: 1 folder, 19 pp.	N.U.C.M.C. number: N.A.
Finding aids: None
Source of collection: Source unknown
Collection description: This xerox of a typescript copy (the location of the original is unknown) of a diary of Elizabeth Bancroft (1773-1867) contains for the most part line-a-day entries for the period 16 June 1793 to 29 October 1795, of a young woman. Entries reveal that she kept a school, evidently in her hometown of Pepperell, Mass., that she attended a dancing school, and that she was otherwise busy attending religious services and quilting bees, visiting friends and relatives.
