

French and Indian War

Contents List

OCTAVO VOLUMES:

1. Cornelius Stowell, 1724-1804
Diary, 29 May to 28 November 1759, Crown Point; includes regimental orders for the 1st Battalion of Brig. Gen. Timothy Ruggles's regiment. 140 pp. (many blank)
2. Soldier's Diary
Fort William Henry, 15 September to 15 November 1758
Louisburg, 15 May to 24 September 1759, with occasional entries and orderly records for 1760
3. Unknown personal memo and account book
1755-1761
51 pp.

FOLIO VOLUMES:

4. Robert Hale, 1703-1767
Chronicle of the major political and military events in America and Europe for the war period. Vol. I begins July 1755, but there are some events dating back to 1748 entered at the start of the volume; it ends 30 October 1757. Vol. II has entries from 1 November 1757 to 30 April 1761, and Vol. III from 1 May 1761 to 30 October 1762.
5. Sir John St. Clair, Quartermaster
Receipt book for bateau service in New York, 16 March to 24 March 1756
24 pages of receipts, 54 pages total

MANUSCRIPT BOX:

6. Folder 1: Correspondence of Sir William Johnson, 1755; 1761-1766
7. Folder 2: " " " 1767-1774
8. Folder 3: Correspondence of John Burk, 1754-1762
9. Folder 4: Correspondence of Robert Hale, 1755
10. Folder 5: Miscellaneous documents, including correspondence of Augustus Keppel, Michael Martyn, Edward Tyng, and William Pitt, a diary of Luke Knowlton for 1759, and a variety of other documents.

(cont'd.)

French and Indian War Collection
Contents List
page 2

11. Folder 6: Returns, rolls, lists, etc., 1755-1761
12. Folder 7: Commissions and Enlistments, 1757; 1760-1761
13. Folder 8: Bills, receipts, and statements of account, 1755-1756; 1759-1765

OVERSIZE MANUSCRIPT BOX

14. Chronological arrangement of returns, rolls, and commissions, 1757-1763, including the "Book of Ballances, 1759," which contains a record of money paid various Massachusetts companies of troops (1 folder)