Collection description:

This small collection of Ballou family documents includes two letters of Universalist clergyman Hosea Ballou (1771-1852) to his son, Maturin M. Ballou (1820-1895); one page of poetry of Hosea Ballou written in 1838; an exchange of four letters between Calvinist clergyman Joseph Buckminster (1751-1812) and Hosea Ballou, in which Buckminster warns Ballou, out of friendship, of the dangers of Universalism; a note from Maturin Ballou to Roswell Martin Field; and a receipt dated 1867 and signed by Charles O. Rogers.
