Collection description:

Jeremiah Evarts Greene (1834-1902) was a civil engineer, lawyer, soldier in the Civil War, an editorial writer for the Worcester Spy, and Worcester postmaster.

The greatest part of the collection consists of family correspondence, most of which is addressed to Greene, in the period 1884 to 1902. There is correspondence from relatives in the Greene, Evarts, Boutell, Loomis, Tracy, and White families, with scattered items from friends and colleagues of Greene.

The overwhelming majority of the correspondence items relates solely to family affairs, though a few letters touch on Prohibition in Iowa in 1889 and life in Japan in the 1880s and 1890s.

The collection also contains legal documents reflecting Greene's tenure as a Justice of the Peace and Trial Judge in Worcester County. Legal documents include warrants, trial notes, and a variety of deeds (most of which are certified by Greene) and other, miscellaneous items. There are also receipts, documents respecting Greene's actions as a Civil War Agent, and a bankbook.
