COLLECTION DESCRIPTION:

Phillips Brooks (1835-1893), Episcopal clergyman, was a widely known preacher and religious leader who held for more than twenty years the influential position at Boston's Trinity Church.

This small collection of manuscripts consists of correspondence, especially with Frederic William Farrar (1831-1903), about Brooks' visit to England in 1885, as well as Farrar's trip to the U.S. in the same year. There is a small quantity of correspondence dealing with matters in his congregation in Boston, as well as one sermon by Brooks.
