Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 87½ each.

A triple combination of moral games. The Pilgrim's Progress illustrates Bunyan's great book, The Sunday-School game, The Temptations of Youth, and The Tower of Babel is based on the biblical account of that great tower.

JOHN GILPIN,

Rainbow Backgammon, and The Bewildered Travelers.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 87½ each.

In the Gilpin game, the famous order of the great "Train Band Captain" is made a reality—the Inn of the game being as difficult to reach as was the famed Inn at Islington. Rainbow Backgammon excels all other backgammon games, and the Bewildered Travelers is an originality that rarely fails to amuse.

THE MONOPOLIST—New,

Ten-Up, and Mariner's Compass.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 87½ each.

On this board the great struggle between Capital and Labor can be fought out to the satisfaction of all parties, and, if the players are successful, they can break the Monopolist, and become Monopolist's themselves. Ten-Up is named from its ten points to be made, and, like the Mariner's Compass, is fresh from the domain of invention.

JEROME PARK STEEPLE-CHASE GAME,

The Balking Horse, and Pool.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $2 25 each.

The great hurdle-race game, whose merits have made it popular on both Continents. Balking Horse, and Pool, are both lively and fitting companions for it, and destined also to gain like popularity.

GAME OF LIFE'S MISHAPS,

Domino Rex, and Diamonds and Hearts.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 12½ each.

In this game, the ridiculous adventures of a "Paddy from Cork" are brought out in the "set backs" which the players encounter on their way to the "Goal." Domino Rex is a game for quick wits and clear heads, and Hearts and Diamonds for those who like games of chance—depending on the "throw of the die."

THE CAPTIVE PRINCESS,

Tournament, and Pathfinders.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 12½ each.

Captive Princess is a very simple and meritorious game, played with painted cubes corresponding to the colors of the board. Tournament, and Pathfinders, are also very "gamey," and played with the same implements.

AMBUSCADE,

Bounce, and Constellation.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 12½ each.

Ambuscade is well described by its name, and contains all the essentials of a game of the highest order, blending equally chance with skill. We feel that we are moderate in its praise, when we say, it is fully the equal of any game in the market. The addition of Bounce, and Constellation, makes this board a prize for the family circle.

CATS AND MICE,

Gantlope, and Lost Diamond.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 12½ each.

Cats and Mice is the oddest and liveliest of games. What is livelier than a nimble little mouse?—unless it be the cat that catches it—and the players for the time become cats and mice, with real fun. Gantlope is one of our happy hits, and the Lost Diamond a source of wealth to the unemployed or perplexed mind.

TOUSEL,

Checkers, and Backgammon.

Three Games in one Board.

Retails $1 12½ each.

We have sought in The Game of Tousel to give the public a sterling game, in combination with the ever-welcome Checker and Backgammon boards, but unlike the latter, as usually sold, furnished with implements and directions complete.

GO BANG—New—Ready in September,

Russian Tivoli, Fox and Geese, Solitaire, and the German Siege Game.

Five Games in one Board.

Retails $1 12½ each.

Including the most popular, the oldest, and the newest of games—affording amusement for a single individual, or for a party. Russian Tivoli the latest novelty.

VALENTINES

OUR special list for the Valentine Season, will be issued in January. In this Department we are always devising something new, and improving all that is good of the old. With processes that are ever improving, and with additions to our Mechanical Departments of the most perfect description, we shall be enabled to offer the approaching season, a line of VALENTINES, whose superior excellence excels all our previous efforts. We would especially call attention to our

FANCY BOX VALENTINES,

which have been brought to a high state of perfection. Some of our new styles are very elegant, and surpass in quality and price anything of the kind on the market. Our

New Floral Valentine Cards,

will be cheaper and better than any heretofore produced. We also have in hand a new line of

Useful Valentine Novelties.

These are the most attractive departures from the old beaten track that have been introduced among Valentines for many years. While making great progress in the perfection and variety of our Sentimentals, we have not neglected our

COMICS.

Over one hundred varieties have been added to them this year. These contain racy, pungent hits, very cleverly executed, and apply to every phase of the human character, and are, we believe, better than any that have ever before been produced.
