LOTTO

Lotto is one of the most popular of all games. Its simplicity and interest recommend it alike to young and old. A Lotto game must contain a set of cards, laid off in numbered squares, and a set of numbered pieces. Glass markers are usually added to the larger sets. The players each receive several cards and a portion of the markers. The leader draws the numbered pieces from the box, calling the numbers drawn. The players cover with markers all the numbers called which may be upon their cards. The one who first gets a row of numbers on one of his cards with glass markers, wins the game.

BACKGAMMON BOARDS

Our line of Backgammon and Checker Boards is extensive and varied enough to meet all possible requirements, whether as to size, style, or quality. The workmanship and materials of the boards of every grade are the best that can be afforded for the price, and the same may be said of the men, dice, and dice cups.

A desirable feature which we have lately added to the 75 cent and upward grades, is a booklet containing full and clear directions for the games played on the boards.

All Backgammon boards must be sent by express

No. 7464.—TWIRLY-WHIRLY

TWIRLY-WHIRLY

A NOVEL GAME OF SKILL
McLOUGHLIN BROTHERS NEW YORK

Size, 24 x 13 inches

This game is played with small balls on a very handsome board. One player shoots a ball in an oval runway, and another tries to hit the moving ball by shooting another through a straight, intersecting runway. The idea is novel and the game fascinating. A pleasing variation of India, one of the most popular games of chance, may also be played on the board.

No. 7788—PEEP SHOW

Size, 8 x 12 x 6 inches

This is a box in which pictures may be viewed through an eye hole. The method of lighting gives them a vivid, realistic appearance, and they are easily changed. One dozen pictures are furnished, and any others of suitable size may be used without difficulty.

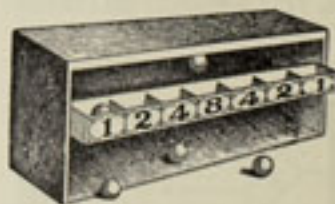

No. 7333—GAME OF AEROES

No. 7773.—SKOOPIT

Size of box, 13 x 20 inches

A really fascinating novelty, combining amusement and exercise most delightfully. The game consists of keeping an Aero aloft with a fan, and directing it to a goal. The Aero is a simple but ingenious contrivance, of a shape which secures the utmost lightness with the most effective arrangement of surface. The outfit is for four players, with two extra Aeroes.

Size, 7½ x 10 inches

The conspicuous merit and attractiveness of this game have caused it to make a decided hit. It is a sort of floor bagatelle, in which balls are rolled at an oblong case, and when properly aimed receive a twist which causes them to make a backward jump and land in a scoring tray. A delightful game, either for family amusement or for parties.
