"Catalogue of Pamphlets received of the Boston Atheneum by the American Antiquarian Society. Jan. 23, 1834." 29 leaves, 32 cm.

Compiled by Christopher Columbus Baldwin.

[See Baldwin diary and Baldwin papers, oct. vol. 6. The Atheneum offered AAS duplicate pamphlets, which Baldwin selected and brought back to Worcester. He began the catalogue on February 1. On February 5, Baldwin wrote to Isaac Davis. The Massachusetts Historical Society evidently had also taken some duplicate pamphlets, and Baldwin asked Davis to keep separate those that MHS didn't need. On February 12, Baldwin sent his catalogue to Dr. Bass, librarian of the Atheneum, possibly so that they could ensure they hadn't lost their only copy of anything.]
