

A VIEW of the OBELISK erected under LIBERTY—TREE in BOSTON on the Rejoicings for the Repeal of the Stamp Act 1768.

Of those whom necessity constrain may see
 How LIBERTY these have taught together
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 Laws on these laws by which we are brought
 And that these laws are made for our good
 And that these laws are made for our good
 And that these laws are made for our good
 And that these laws are made for our good
 And that these laws are made for our good

While standing Ourselves to Liberty shall
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be

How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be

How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be
 How we not more than slaves shall be

To every Lover of LIBERTY, this Plate is humbly dedicated, by her true born SONS, in BOSTON, New England (Who have her LIBERTY, as by the Royal hand of GEORGE the Third)
