Ten-Up, and Mariner's Compass.

Three Games in one Board.

$1.75 each.

On this board the great struggle between Capital and Labor can be fought out to the satisfaction of all parties, and, if the players are successful, they can break the Monopolist, and become Monopolist's themselves. Ten-Up is named from its ten points to be made, and, like the Mariner's Compass, is fresh from the domain of invention.

TOUSEL,

Checkers and Backgammon.

Three Games in one Board.

$1.10 each.

We have sought in The Game of Tousel to give the public a sterling game, in combination with the ever-welcome Checkers and Backgammon boards, but unlike the latter, as usual sold, furnished with implements and directions complete.

GO BANG—New—Ready in September,

Russian Tivoli, Fox and Geese, Solitaire, and the German Game.

Five Games in one Board.

$1.10 each.

Including the most popular, the oldest, and the newest games—affording amusement for a single individual, or for a party. Russian Tivoli the latest novelty.
AUTHORS.

The complete and varied line published, with simple and explicit directions for playing by the usual methods; also, with instructions for playing the new and improved games issued by us, presenting greater innovations, and a higher degree of excellence and perfection, than have been offered to the public in the past history of the game.

FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS FROM POPULAR AUTHORS.

The ordinary standard game, with the substitution of quotations for the works of Authors. The game will instruct the players as to their origin. Put up in neat pasteboard boxes.

AUTHORS.

Retails 25 cents each.

A popular edition. Contains sixty cards. Printed in the usual form, with the addition of classified, or lettered boxes. Put up in neat pasteboard boxes.

CRIBBAGE AUTHORS.

Fancy Cases, Retails 75 cents each. Wood Boxes, 90 cents each.

Contains seventy-two cards, printed in colors. A game called by any Authors herebefore published. The cards are also arranged for playing Snap Snap, Tabular Authors, The Inn and Ones, and are superior to the ordinary ones for playing the regular game.

STAR AUTHORS.

Fancy Cases, Retails 75 cents each. Wood Boxes, 90 cents each.

Sixty-four cards, with finely executed portraits of thirty-two prominent Authors. The books classified for convenience in play, and valued at the close of the game according to their relations to each other, which depend largely upon the memory of the player, and his shrewdness in "calling." Introduces the features of Star Books, Sequences, and Star Sequences.

MUSICAL AUTHORS.

In Cases, Retails 75 cents each. Wood Boxes, 90 cents each.

Contains ninety-six cards, with the names of musical composers and their works, accompanied by short biographical notices. Played like other Authors. Two different parties may play at the same time, by dividing the pack, which is one of the fullest made. People who have no time for the study of music, will find this game very desirable.

LARGE GAME CARDS.

Illustrated in colors. Methods of play varied, lively, and very often laughable. Put up in fine wood boxes, with slumbering cover and varnished label. Packed in assorted boxes, containing two each of the first two games, and one each of the others.

The Golden Egg-
Chinese Pairs,
Yankee Peddler,
The Happy Family,
The Six Nations,
Hocus Pocus, Conjurors,
Visit to Camp,
The Chautauqua,
The Merry Goose Game,
The Burglars.

CONVERSATION CARDS.

Are among the oldest and most popular of parlor amusements. The immense variety of combinations that can be made with these cards, necessarily gives rise to many funny and amusing conversations. Put up in neat, sliding pasteboard cases.

Quarterly Questions and Quaint Replies. Comical Conversations.

Parties, Games.

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Conversation Cards. Lovers and Licks.

AGE AND NAME CARDS—Ladies and Gentlemen.

Each pack contains eight cards. One hundred and twenty-seven names are equal in value to the cards. By a very simple method the age and name of any person can be ascertained. Put up in pasteboard cases.

ALPHABET CARDS.

Seven sizes. Colored squares, containing one letter each. Capital on one side, Small Letters on the other. No. 7 is an Illustrated Alphabet, very showy, and printed in colors, on one side, with Spelling Lessons, 4 lines of writing available, in bold, plain type, on the other side.

No. 1—Site 6 by 6—Colored Retails 1e.
No. 2—Site 6 by 6—Capital 3e.
No. 2—Site 7 by 10—’” 5e.
No. 4—Site 8 by 11—’” 8e.
No. 5—Site 10 by 12—’” 10e.
No. 6—Site 8 by 11—Arithmetical 8e.
No. 7—Site 11 by 14—Pictorial 10e.

FOLDING GAME BOARDS.

Similar to Backgammon Boards—Implements substantial.

THE PILGRIM'S PROGRESS.

Going to Sunday-School, and to Towel of Israel.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 85 cents each.

A triple combination of moral games. The Pilgrim’s Progress illustrates Bunyan's great book, Three-brick School game, The Temptations of Youth, and Towel of Israel is based on the biblical account of that great tower.

JOHN GILPIN.

Rainbow Backgammon, and The Bewildered Travelers.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 85 cents each.

In the Gilpin game, the famous order of the great "Train Band Captain," is made a reality—the Inn of the game being as difficult to reach as was the famed Inn at Shillingford. Rainbow Backgammon excels all other backgammon games, and the Bewildered Travelers is an originality that rarely fails to amuse.

THE MONOPOLIST—Now, Ten-Up, and Mariner's Compass.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 875 cents each.

On this board the great struggle between Capital and Labor can be fought out to the satisfaction of all parties, and, if the players are successful, they can break the Monopolist, and become Monopolists themselves. Ten-Up is named from its ten points to be made, and, like the Mariner's Compass, is fresh from the domain of invention.

JEROME PARK STEEPLE-CHASE GAME.

The Balky Horse, and Pool.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 825 cents each.

The great hurdle-race game, whose merits have made it popular on both Continents. Balky Horse, and Pool, are both lively and fitting companions for it, and destined also to gain like popularity.

GAME OF LIFE'S MISHAPS.

Domino Roy, and Diamonds and Hearts.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 8125 cents each.

In this game, the ridiculous adventures of a "Paddy from Cork" are brought out in the "set backs which the player encounters on their way to the "Goal." Domino Roy is a game for quick wits and clear heads, and Hearts and Diamonds for those who like games of chance—depending on the "throw of the die."

THE CAPTIVE PRINCESS.

Tournament, and Pathfinders.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 8135 cents each.

Captive Princes is a very simple and interesting game, played with painted cubes corresponding to the colors of the board. Tournament, and Pathfinders, are also very "gamey," and played with the same implements.

AMBUSCADE.

Hounce, and Constellation.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 8115 cents each.

Ambuscade is well described by its name, and contains all the essentials of a game of the highest order, being equally chance with skill. We feel that we are moderate in its praise, when we say, it is fully the equal of any game in the market. The addition of Hounce, and Constellation, makes this board a prize for the family circle.

CATS AND MICE.

Gantlope, and Lost Diamond.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 8135 cents each.

Cats and Mice is the oldest and liveliest of games. What is livelier than a nimble little mouse—unless it be the cat that catches it—and the players for the time become cats and mice, with real fun. Gantlope is one of our happy hits, and the Lost Diamond a source of wealth to the unemployed or perplexed mind.

TOUSEL.

Checkers and Backgammon.

Three Games in one Board. Retails 8115 cents each.

We have sought in The Game of Tousel to give the public a steering game, in combination with the ever-welcome Checkers and Backgammon boards, but unlike the latter, as usual sold, furnished with implements and directions complete.

GO BANG—New—Ready in September.

Russian Tivoli, Fox and Geese, Solitaire, and the German Game.

Five Games in one Board. Retails 8115 cents each.

Including the most popular, the oldest, and the newest of games—affording amusement for a single individual, or for a party. Russian Tivoli the latest novelty.

VALENTINES

Our special list for the Valentine Season, will be issued in January. In this Department we are always devising something new, and improving all that is good of the old. With processes that are ever improving, and with additions to our Mechanical Departments of the most perfect description, we shall be enabled to offer the approaching season, a line of Valentines, whose superior excellence excels all our previous efforts. We would especially call attention to our which have been brought to a high state of perfection. Some of our new styles are very elegant, and surpass in quality and price anything of the kind on the market. Our

FANCY BOX VALENTINES,

New Floral Valentine Cards, will be cheaper and better than any heretofore produced. We also have in hand a new line of Useful Valentine Novelties.

These are the most attractive departures from the old beaten track that have been introduced among Valentines for many years. While making great progress in the perfection and variety of our Sentimentals, we have not neglected our

COMICS.

Over one hundred varieties have been added to them this year. These contain racy, pungent hits, very cleverly executed, and apply to every phase of the human character, and are, we believe, better than any that have ever before been produced.
