

OBITUARIES.

JOSEPH ANDERSON.

Joseph Anderson, a member of this Society since 1885, died in Portsmouth, N. H., August 18, 1916. Born in Scotland, December 16, 1836, he came to the United States in 1842 and has resided here since that time. In 1854 he was graduated from the College of the City of New York with the degree of A.B. and in 1857 received the degree of A.M. In 1857 he was graduated from the Union Theological Seminary. The honorary degree of D.D. was conferred upon him by Yale in 1878. He held pastorates in Stamford, Norwalk, and Waterbury, Conn., and since 1905 was pastor emeritus of the First Church of Waterbury. He held many offices connected with the Congregational Church; and since 1884 was a member of the corporation of Yale. He made a special study of the languages and antiquities of the American Indians. He edited and was largely the author of "The Town and City of Waterbury, Conn.," in three volumes, published in 1896; and was author of many books and pamphlets on local history. On January 24, 1859, he married Anna Sands Gildersleeve, of New York. He was also a member of the American Historical Association, of the National Institute of Social Sciences and was President and Curator of the Museum of the Mattatuck Historical Society. s. u.
